   Adults should be positive role models for minors, and act in a caring, honest, respectful and responsible manner that is consistent with the mission of Kutztown University. The risks and challenges associated with working with minors in-person are also present when working with minors online. Adults working with minors online must follow these expectations to avoid behaviors that could cause harm or be misinterpreted:

   - Do not engage or communicate with minors through email or text messages, social networking websites, internet chat rooms, or other forms of social media at any time except and unless there is an educational or programmatic purpose and the content of the communication is consistent with the mission of the program or activity and the university. When communicating electronically, you must copy another Program Staff member or the minor’s parent/guardian.

   - Do not wear inappropriate attire when interacting with minors online.
• Keep virtual backgrounds (image or video in background) appropriate.

• Limit one-on-one contact in breakout sessions by following the "Rule of Three". Set up any interactions with individual minors to include the minor's parent or guardian or having two authorized adults present for those interactions.

• Be mindful of private chat features available in the virtual platform and disable feature if not absolutely necessary. If the feature must be used for the program, ensure that the parent or guardian is included in each chat or private message when communicating with the minor in this format.

• Only the program facilitator should see the email addresses of the minors participating.

• The event cannot be recorded.

• Ensure that comments or chat features are limited to participants and that the names are not displayed and no personal contact information is being shared.

• Do not engage in any sexual activity, make sexual comments, tell sexual jokes, or share sexually explicit material (or assist in any way to provide access to such material) with minors.

• Do not engage or allow minors to engage you in romantic or sexual conversations, or related matters.

• Do not be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs while interacting with minors online.

• Do not tell a minor “this is just between the two of us,” or use similar language that encourages minors to keep secrets from their parent/guardian.

• Be aware of potential for cyber bullying. (For more information on Cyberbullying: (https://www.stopbullying.gov/cyberbullying/prevention)

Overall, be mindful of appropriate behavior when conducting virtual events sponsored by Kutztown University.
